17 NOVEMBER 2023, FRIDAY

Workshop Title	Become an Archaeologist, Become an Ancient Person: How to Create Workshops to Appreciate Cultural Heritage
Facilitators	Akiko Nishijima
Duration	1,5 hr
Participant Number	25 persons
Language	English
Venue	Ankara Orchard House
Description:	This workshop aims to introduce two different approaches in creating programs that help participants become more familiar with cultural heritage; one is an experiential workshop titled, "I'm an archaeologist," and the other is the "Kyhaku Women's Archaeology Club." In the former, one can experience a part of an archaeologist's job, that is, to "become" an archaeologist. In the latter, one can experience the lifestyle of ancient people, that is, to "become" a person from an ancient era.
Notes to attendees: *The workshop will be held in English and no simultaneous translation will be available. Registrants are expected to express themselves in English.

17 NOVEMBER 2023, FRIDAY

Workshop Title	How to Prepare Hands-On Educational Programs – Grasping Prehistory
Facilitator	Lasse Stockholm Nielsen
Duration	1,5 hr
Participant Number	25 persons
Language	English
Venue	Ankara Orchard House
Description:	Discover the power of hands-on education in cultural heritage museums, with a special focus on engaging children aged 0-18. In this dynamic workshop, you'll explore effective strategies for creating interactive and participatory museum experiences. We'll draw inspiration from the success of Sagnlandet Lejre, a prominent cultural heritage museum in Denmark.
Notes to attendees: *The workshop will be held in English and no simultaneous translation will be available. Registrants are expected to express themselves in English.
